9. VERBAL REPORT FROM CHIEF

- Chief Wilkinson advised that interviews for the Youth in Policing Initiative (YIPI) were held last week. Six interviews in total were conducted and two positions are available this year. The YIPI program has previously been successful and the students keep in contact with WPS and ask them to speak at their schools.

- The funeral service for Eric Mueller was held in Kanata at the Canadian Tire Center. An officer from WPS attended overnight, costs of the attendance are split between the Woodstock Police Association and WPS.

- Chief Wilkinson noted that VASOC (Victims Assistance) is looking for additional volunteers to provide crisis assistance, emotional assistance and tragic event services. Recruitment for volunteers is ongoing.

- April 26, 2023 was Administrative Professionals Day. WPS recognizes all the hard work by the clerks and administrative staff. Chief Wilkinson acknowledged that these professionals are an essential function of WPS.

- The Grandparents scam is still occurring involving money scams. Residents are encouraged to be aware and cautious when speaking with individuals on the phone and sharing personal and confidential information.

- May 1, 2023 was First Responders Day. Chief Wilkinson extended thanks and appreciation to all Fire, Emergency Services and Police staff for their involvement in keeping the community safe.

- The first week of May was Mental Health Week; posts were made on social media to promote this week by WPS. The Protocol Committee deals with apprehension under the Mental Health Act. This includes a revision of the 'hand-off' protocol with the hospital. This Committee meets 3 to 4 times a year. Results from this revision have decreased wait times by officers at the hospital immensely.

- In cooperation with Operation Sharing and the CRU Team the BEAT Patrol team are hearing positive responses from the Downtown BIA.

- During the week of May 4, the Tim Hortons smile cookie campaign took place. All proceeds are donated to the United Way. In total 550 volunteer hours were donated and raised a total of $120,000.

- May 5, 2023 is the day of awareness of the Murdered and Missing Indigenous Women and Girls and Two Spirited people.

- May 6, 2023 is Emergency Preparedness Week, an event was held in the parking lot of WPS to help inform and educate the public about emergency preparedness.

- The CRU Team will be partnering up with Woodstock Fire Services to help with the VON Sakura House labyrinth.
- WPS is ready to assist and participate in the Victoria Day parade.
- A canine demonstration day is planned for June.
- As of Friday, June 2, the SIU will have cleared their investigation relating to a WPS Officer charged with an incident involving a police cruiser and arrest.
